

Modul designation	Bioethics & Humaniora 2 (Sociology and Medical Anthropology)
Semester in which the module is taught	3rd Semester of Academic/Bachelor Stage
Person responsible for the module	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Mia Kusmiati dr.,MPd.Ked., PhD 2. Tita Bariah Siddiq,dr. 3. Meta Maulida, drg.,M.Kes 4. Dr. Caecielia Wagiono, drg., Sp.Prost., MMRS., MH.
Language	Bilingual (Indonesia & English)
Relation to curriculum	Compulsory
Teaching methods	Lecture
Workload	Total workload : 14 weeks Contact hours : Lecture 2 hours/meeting
Credit points	3 ECTS (2 SKS)
Required & recommended prerequisites for joining the module	-
Module Objective	At the end of course, students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Explaining cultural and health anthropology (C2) 2. Applying cultural and health anthropology in managing health problems that often occur in society (C3) 3. Explain the concept of health and community culture, including the uniqueness of customs in certain cultures (C2) 4. Explaining culture and ritual misfortune that can disrupt and damage behaviour to achieve optimal health in society. (C2) 5. Applying the principles of handling stress culture in the era of globalisation and the BPJS Health era. (C3) 6. Analyze the problems that occur in society in playing the role of illness and medical interactions between patients and doctors. (C5) 7. Explains the definition of contemporary medicine, problems that may arise in today's medicine, and anticipates various challenges due to advances in technology and medical science.

	(C2, C3) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 8. Explain transgender from the perspective of health and Islamic teachings and be able to overcome changes in behaviour due to misperceptions about transgender (C2). 9. Explains the principles of health gender equity in the Indonesian community. (C2) 10. Applying the principle of health gender in equity in cases that occur in society. (C3) 11. Know the definition, concepts, and principles of Euthanasia from an Islamic Perspective (C2) 12. Know the definition, concepts, and principles of euthanasia from a positive legal perspective (C2). 13. Explaining medical sociology to educate the public to create a society that is physically, mentally, and spiritually healthy (C2) 14. Applying aspects of medical sociology to create a physically, mentally, and spiritually healthy society. (C3) 15. Explain the concept of global and regional patterning of health. (C2)
Content	Bioethics & Humaniora 2 module is part of efforts to improve health standards that pay attention to and consider cultural and behavioural aspects of fulfilling the right to health through learning components in the form of cultural and health anthropology and medical sociology.
Examination forms	Written Test Examination
Study and examination requirements	System Pass Criteria : minimum written test score 55.5 (C)
Reading list	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Helman CG. Chapter 13. Culture, health and illness. 4th ed. Oxford: Butterworth Heinemann 2. Medical word use in clinical encounters Susan Koch & Weser, William DeJong, and Rima E. Rudd, Pubmed, Health Expectation. 3. Patients' Level of Medical Term Recognition As Estimated by Health Care Workers. Yasuko Yoshida & Yosithoku Yoshida, Nagoya J Med.Sci. 4. Collaborative Implementation of Shared Decision Making State legislation. Megan Morris et all. 5. Medical Sociology. Key concept and Issues (second edition). Kai-Lit Phua.Yut-Lin Wong. Cencage Learning Asia

